THE HAWKS WILL STRIVE IN '75

Last week's encounter against the Bulls showed our supporters that Gosnells have improved greatly from last year.

The Seconds, after letting their opponents get the jump on them in the first quarter, went down only by a kick.

The most encouraging aspect of the game was the good performances put in by the young players in the side.

Best players were:

Mark Smythe, Jon McGowan and Graham Campbell.

The League side for three quarters were equal to Maddington, but through some simple mistakes at crucial times in the last quarter, allowed the Bulls to slip away and win the game.

Best players were:—

Don Sloper, Ray Minson, Ted Wilkes and Ian Gimblett.

Very gratifying to see a large crowd of supporters, and from Maddington, stay back after the game where a presentation was made to Ray Minson for playing his 100th game for the Club.

Male members of the Club are invited to witness training on Friday, 25th of April commencing at 7.30 a.m. followed by Breakfast with the boys at 9 a.m.

This event will cost you $2.00 and the Club has invited several guest speakers for the morning.

See Hyden Cooper, Keith Davis or Frank Sochacki for tickets.

Today we travel to Armadale where from all reports we should have a tough encounter, but with all players fit, the Selectors will be in a position to field strong sides for League and Seconds.

DEMONS DIGEST

This week, we are at home, yet again, this time as hosts to Gosnells, the 'Hawks.'

They are all invited to come to our friendly 'swift' 'arf and chat session' after the game, whatever the results.

At Gwynne Park last week, both teams fell to our local rivals, Kelmscott.

The League side started off in superb fashion, and kicked an incredible 2.18 in the first quarter, with the Bulldogs chasing shadows.

If half the twenty shots were goals, the Demons would have had it in the bag.

However, Kelmscott came back well, and made their shots count finally running out comfortable winners.

Players to stand out for the Demons were Allan Narkle, Peter Smith, 'Killer' Davey, and 'Griffo.' With the addition of one particular big player that we are waiting on, the League side will be in the thick of it.

NOTICES

Binoo will start on Monday, May 12th at Gwynne Park pavilion run by Westfield Park Soccer Club and ourselves. So, get on your 'leas 11's' and come over.

Sporting films show will be held on Friday, May 30th at the Armadale Hall.

Mid-Season Cabaret will be held at Armadale Hall, Saturday, 28th June.

Club car stickers on sale at the gate, only 20 cents each.

Club T-shirts available soon.

Club blazers and badges are being looked into by the committee.

WICK'S WEEKLY

Although the Royals defeated Kalamunda in the League game last Sunday, poor kicking for goal nearly cost us the game.

Had it not been for the great work by Barry Nicholas, John Hart and Kevin Wilson in defence the result could quite easily have gone the opposition's way.

If we are to defeat Kelmscott today, our forwards will certainly have to have their kicking boots on.

From last week's game the best players were the three players already mentioned, along with Norm Miller and Kenny Staines on the ball and Ralphie Martin on the wing.

The Second's game was an even affair in the first half, but experience told in the second half when the Royals won in every position and completely outclassed the opposition.

The winning margin would have been greater if the "Snake" had not used his powerful torpedoes when kicking for goal in the first quarter.

However, he came good and finished the day with six goals against his name.

Newly elected vice-captain Gary Fry excelled in his new role and was possibly the best man afield.

Other players to show out were John Hollier, Neville Fry, John Oliver and "Butcher" Beattie.

Well, today it's Kelmscott home and all the supporters are hoping for our third winning double for the season, so fellas, don't let them down.

Win, lose or draw, Kelmscott supporters and players are invited to join us after the game for a few drinks.

SOCIAL

Tickets are now available for our annual raffle in which two great prizes will be won.

Last Sunday, Canning suffered its second defeat for the season by Kwinana in both the League and Reserve Grades.

However, the standard of football produced by both sides seems a good indication of a gradual increase in the players' determination to win games.

Poor kicking in front of goals in the second and final quarters seems to have lost Canning the game. More concentration and team work is needed in this area because the side is developing into a well-balanced one and it should not be let down by poor kicking in front of goals.

Reg Lunt playing on the half back line showed his best form for the year as did coach Paul Polsen and rover John Hurley.

If the side can continue this type of football in future, you will see Canning again on the winning list.

A much-improved Reserves side almost brought up its first victory for the season, but patchy play prevented this from happening.

The side has to play four whole quarters of football to have any real chance of winning.

Players to show out in this game were half back flanker Neville Jones, ruck man Peter Ensel and George Russell playing a real Captain's game.

Today's game against Maddington could see a victory if every player fronts up with the right mental attitude.

So let's bring home our first double for a real morale boosting effort.

HASBEEN

SEASIDERS SPOTLIGHT

Well, a bad start to the season nevertheless last Sunday's performances against Thornlie showed we have the potential to be a force in the competition.

The League side were slow off the mark, but produced a high standard of football in the last three quarters to go down by two points in the closing minutes.

Coach, Don Rintoul had team superbly working strongly and was a great avenue of attack.

Other prominent players were Rusty Rénfrey and Greg Rundell.

Our young Second's side were beaten comfortably by a strong Thornlie side, but with a few games under their belts and the return back to the game by coach Robbie Rundell after his tribunal holiday finishes, they will start to give some of the other sides something to think about.

Kerry Woollorton and Ian Jones tried hard all day for the Seconds.

Today we play Kwinana and this cannot be taken lightly after their wins last week, so it's up to each and everyone to get right behind coaches Don and Rob and get out of this early season rut.

"IN THE LIONS LAIR"

Last Sunday in a tight, hard fought game the Lions managed to come from behind and win. Most people gave Mandurah little chance of beating us, but this wasn't the case. Mandurah kicked the ball better using long, penetrating drop kicks, something that is lacking in Thornlie at the moment.

If it wasn't for the extra desperation by Thornlie in the last quarter, we wouldn't have the four points.

Best players—League:

Frank Geers. Good steady performance.

Chris Roe. Does not know defeat.

Ron Brown. A great utility game.

Captain Jumbo Denton's mob cruised to another resounding victory in the Reserves and with the performances by most of these players there is increasing pressure for League berths.

Best players — Reserves:

Brian Carr. Handy game on the wing.

Horse Miles. His kicking is a delight to watch.

Trevor Sturk. Applied himself well in forward line.

In view of this week's clash with Kalamunda, whom we welcome to the Lions Lair, there are a few players in both League and Reserves who must learn to play the front position. The only way to win the ball. Improvement in this facet of the game by these players is expected from both coaches. Come Lions roar to our Third consecutive "DOUBLE."

INJURED PLAYERS: Doug Cunningham, Hamstring. Mark Murphy, Hamstring. Alfie Lewis, Wrenched neck.

KALAMUNDA KOUGARS

Despite a determined effort by the league side against Kenwick the 4 points did not come our way. A loss of concentration for 10 short minutes during the second quarter was our downfall.

We must apply full pressure for the total four quarters of future matches if we are to succeed.

Whilst player awards were announced at our after-game social last week, it would be appropriate to record that our fightback was the result of a team effort and augurs well for the future.

Players receiving awards for the league were:—

KEVIN DENN
IAN BUTCHER
PETER DUCKETT
RAY HUNTER
EDDIE HAYES
TERRY ENRIGHT

Would players please note: In future if they intend to sing before a game, get in some practice first, and then make it a decent club song!

Mention must be made of Kenwick's fine support at our after-game social, even though there did seem to be a 'cooked-up' result in the two hot chickens drawn, with the respective coaches each selecting the other's number.

The Reserves game was disappointing after the previous week's victory, more determination and application to the fundamentals of football are necessary.

A good game was turned in by Graham Watson and Dennis Humfrey.

New players to come under the selector's notice were Glenn O'Rourke, Gary Ewen, Chris Brown and Neil Price.

Our thanks are recorded to our many helpers who are assisting in club activities, we couldn't manage without you.

This week — it's Thornlie.
Well Kougars, how about chalking up our first of many victories. We now know we can do it, let's prove it!

TANGLEFOOT

THE KNIGHTS' NOTES

The mighty Knights achieved a well earned double last Sunday against Canning away from home.

The League side led throughout and, although hard pressed in the third quarter, were able to finish strongly against the breeze in the last quarter to score a convincing 29 point win.

Don Baskerville thoroughly earned the praise betowed on him by Geoff after the game and his was a great effort, but he sorely needs help. So, if any supporter knows where we can find a six foot four inch, fifteen stone ruckman, with loads of ability, please contact the undersigned.

Frank Legina, Mick Indlich and Noel Van Heythuysen played strongly and Rod Elmer showed he will be a handy player in the games to come.

The Reserves win was also a convincing one.

Good players included Paul Frost and Ian Smith, while Dayman showed he wont be long out of the League side.

Lee Hazell has obtained a design for the Club's tee shirt and it's a beauty. If you wish to order one, see Lee and she will show you the sketch.

Today we play our old rivals from down south in Mandurah. Everyone is invited to remain behind afterwards and some of the ladies are preparing hot soup, etc. for the kids (Mandurah included).
